Lots to learn to love to grow together

sky

"Growing up together, they had to work things out... the push and pull, all the spats that siblings go through... gradually learning to love and support one another, until eventually discovering... they are each other's greatest gift."

Sister

Nothing comes close to the closeness of sisters page 20

"I have two little granddaughters. One minute they're squabbling over a toy or jostling for attention, and the next minute, they're hugging and kissing each other. It's a constant back and forth of friend and foe. I'm watching them forge a relationship that will last their lives.

"I hope my granddaughters develop the closeness that I've always enjoyed with my two sisters. There's nothing like the love of a sister. It grows out of a shared history of funny, stormy, trying, joyful experiences... creating the foundation on which every strong relationship is built."

"I like the double meaning of the word 'gathering'... of materials to form into a wreath, or gathering together with

Musicals

"I remember a gift of a music box—long ago. When I opened it, a ballerina magically twirled to the melody of Always. Dance has always inspired me—it's sculpture in motion! When I sculpt, I try to carve movement into the form. Having these pieces turn to music is a natural and exciting progression for Willow Tree. I hope that the classic melodies of these musicals are both familiar and happily reminiscent."
